

Overseas Induction Assessment - Primary and Post Primary

If you have completed a formal induction process in another country, you are required to apply to the Teaching Council for the assessment of that process to determine eligibility for recognition in Ireland.

The Induction process must meet the following criteria to be considered for assessment:

1. Must be completed after qualifying as a teacher
2. Must be a minimum of one year in duration
3. Must be certified by the competent authority, e.g., Ministry of Education/Teaching Council in the country in which the induction process was completed
4. A mentoring/support structure must be included in the induction process
5. The process must be formalised internally at school level and validated externally at state/country level
6. A Primary teacher must teach a nationally recognised curriculum to the age range 4- to 12-year-olds
7. A Post-primary teacher must teach a nationally recognised curricular subject(s) to the age range 12- to 18-year-olds

The following evidence must be submitted with your letter of application:

1. An overview of the formal Induction process published by the competent authority and verified by the school/authority as being the process completed
2. Submission of internal and external reports/outcomes/results/observations
3. In respect of primary teachers – the dates and duration of the induction process, specifying the number of school days completed and the class setting in which it took place – this must be certified by the school / competent authority
4. In respect of post-primary teachers – the dates and duration of the induction process, specifying the number of hours of teaching a post primary curricular subject(s) in a post-primary school and the class setting in which it took place – this must be certified by the school/competent authority
